

Biography

Since 2000 a guitar coach Andrey Veselov has built a brilliant career in the music industry and today he transforms beginner classical guitarists into successful professionals or amateurs himself. Throughout his 9 years' training experience, he has trained and consulted over 100 students worldwide, one of whom became a famous guitarist and performed in 2020 at a prestigious musical venue Carnegie Hall in New York City.

In 2011 Andrey got into TOP-5 guitarists of 2011 according to Schecter Guitar Research. From 2007 to 2020 he was the signed composer of the National Intellectual Property Centre. He has composed 76 compositions, 26 of which have been on sale since 2022. In 2018 he released his book Scales. Throughout his career he has held numerous performances, workshops, conferences, interviews and online radio rotations.

Andrey is an expert in music history, theory, harmony and form. Based on leading sources of information written by famous theorists and practitioners, he has created his own training programme, based on the principles of simplicity and graduality. He uses it flexibly with his students do not only to train them how to play an instrument perfectly, but also to develop their personal qualities to become true professionals.

To maximise the success rate of his students, Andrey is constantly growing professionally. In 2012 he graduated from Minsk State Linguistic University with a BA in Education. In 2017 he successfully completed the general, social and labour psychology course. He regularly participates in numerous events for leading coaches on the development of training methods, communication skills and human interaction.

Responses

“Andrey has achieved great results at a fairly young age. He never rests on his laurels and moves forward” (Garik Ogandzhanyan, Beatles club venue owner)

“Andrey thinks not only as a musician, but also as a sound designer, composer and producer” (Dmitry Aleinikov, Vitebsk Philharmonic Lead Sound Engineer)

“Andrey is an excellent example of the development of a professional. Above all, he is simply a good and kind person” (Alexander Muhin, Doors venue owner)

Feedback

info@andreyveselov.com, +375 (25) 513-76-53 (WhatsApp), andreyveselov.com